

The Adventures of a Boy

103 1 4

Chapter 1 by Robledo Thompson Taren

I was falling very fast. I regretted jumping when I was falling. When I jumped though, it felt like I had nothing. My mom died in a car crash a day earlier, my brother was addicted to heroin, and my dad went to get lottery tickets six years ago. I guess he won. I felt like there was no where to go. When I hit the ground though, I didn't die. I was in critical condition. I was in a coma for two years. I learned a lot about myself during my "Adventures" than a man would his entire life. Let me show you them.

Chapter 2 by Kemo-sabi

I remember chasing something frantically, a rabbit? A light? The end? I'm not quite sure. The object of my pursuit soon leads me into a world of broken disbelief. Giant stone buildings, roads, and anything human has all been returned to nature.

"Where am I?", I puzzled out loud. "Is anyone here?" Only silence answered. My heart raced with anxiety. I looked around desperately for someone, something, anything. "That building, maybe someone's there."
